Dialekt

Dialekt & Karavini (I.V League) are the ones to look out for in 2014. The pair have been rocking shows up and down the coast for a good part of the last two summers. When one of your first shows together is supporting Birds Of Tokyo in front of five thousand people, it's a good place to start off the year. Both possessing their own set of skills Dialekt & Karavini have opened for the likes of Eve, Xzibit, Coolio, Hopsin, Wiz Khalifa, Skrillex, ASAP Rocky & most recently T-Pain.

The Gold Coast is a full time club environment and the two reflect what they have absorbed in their stage presence. Not your generic duo, Karavini also hosts two radio shows on 105.7 FM which is the biggest R&B & Hip Hop station on the Gold Coast, as well as being resident DJ at Beer Garden in Surfers Paradise (Voted Number 1 entertainment venue in QLD in 2013).

Dialekt, resident MC at Paris Night Club, recently back from touring in Los Angeles, has just finished his single "I'm in L.A." which he co-wrote with, and also features Sen Dog from Cypress Hill. "I'm in L.A." has reached well over half a million views on youtube and Dialekt's list of supports is rapidly growing.

Being an artist as well as an MC has enabled Dialekt to channel a more entertaining approach to hyping crowds of all types. With over half a dozen club residencies each have under their belts, the two are setting their sights higher and higher.

Everyone deserves to party as hard as the next person and these two are the crew for the job. There is no place too far and definitely no crowd too wild!
